

EXECUTIVE ORDER 93-16

(Supersedes Executive Order 93-4)

STATE OF ARIZONA TELECOMMUTING PROGRAM

WHEREAS, the 1988 Air Quality Bill requires the State of Arizona, as a large employer, to reduce employee work trips in order to decrease air pollution; and

WHEREAS, the State of Arizona successfully piloted telecommuting as an alternate work option in 1990; and

WHEREAS, the pilot program documented not only reductions in air pollution emitted and gasoline consumed, but also increases in employee productivity and morale due to an improved work environment,

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Fife Symington, Governor of the State of Arizona, by virtue of the Constitution and laws of the State of Arizona, do hereby establish the State of Arizona Telecommuting Program. All agencies, boards and commissions are authorized to participate in the program on a phased-in basis. The program will be administered by the Department of Administration.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of Arizona.

Fife Symington
GOVERNOR

DONE at the Capitol in Phoenix this sixteenth day of August in the Year of Our Lord One Thousand Nine Hundred and Ninety-three and of the Independence of the United States of America the Two Hundred and Seventeenth.
